Art Show

The OSFest Art Show will contain paintings, sculptures, and other art forms. Pre-register your intent to bring artwork to be assured of space for your artwork at the show.

All Art Show instructions and forms can be found at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OSFestArtists/join> or email Trudy Myers at shyshybeing@yahoo.com if you have questions. If you don't have Web access, please mail Trudy at the OSFest address given elsewhere in this brochure."

Marketplace

There will be a cross-section of dealers offering books, jewelry, anime and video, clothes, gaming supplies, and collectibles. Space is still available. Reserve your table by emailing John Pershing at dealers@osfes.org. Include any special requirements like wall space, electricity, or table space without tables.

The Omaha Science Fiction and Fantasy Festival

OSFest celebrates the best in the science fiction, fantasy, and horror genres. Come visit with some of the creators of literature, art, and dramatic presentations.

Attend our panel discussions, workshops, and demonstrations on writing, science, favorite movies and TV shows, costuming, art, and cool technical stuff. Play games, watch anime, sing filk, sit in on readings and autograph sessions, and visit dealers in science fiction and fantasy merchandise. Relax with and meet other fans in our con suite. Tour our art show and bid on your favorites at the art auction. Show off your costume creations in our hall costume contest and formal masquerade.

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Use any of the following methods to contact us:
